

CHAPTER 4 CONCLUSION

Racism is the way in which minority ethnic groups suffer discrimination because of inherent racism in the structures of society. The discriminations is a form of racism that dominates the negative treatment of the white people towards colored people especially African-American race. The racism is done through the seizing of human right and treating someone like property or animal. BlacKkKlansman Movie Script show how racism influenced the used of swear words and dominated by white people. The influence of organization whites supermacist and the government discrimination in several aspect in the past against minorities makes white people in America felt more powerful and openly doing discriminations even if only individuality or small group.

Due the superiority, the characters then to use swear words to harm the other people with their race. The influence of racism in the use of swear words can be seen in some of dialogues that contains racism act and combined with swear words. Discriminations based on personal racism that dominates the negative treatment of white people to the black people rather than institutional racism. In the movie script it does not stated how government discriminate the minorities group, it only can be seen in several statement that prove the existance of institutional racism. The role of supermacist group of Ku Klux Klan also effects the use of swear words that used by their members in the movie script. The swear words nigger, kike and the other racial words become a proof for the influence of racism in the BlacKkKlansman movie script.

Racism has occured for centuries, but there is still a chance to end it. The researcher believe racism sould end because if it continues, it can split the unity of races. It may also lead to more violence within the countries. Racism should be stopped because no race is superior to any other race. All races have equal opportunities as other races.
