

CHAPTER 5

CONCLUSION

After analyze, the writer makes the conclusion from the four songs lyrics of Leave Your Lover, Burning, Nothing Left For You and Pray in two albums by Sam Smith and the writer is using the poetry studies approach that relates to the Concept of Emotion: Sadness to find the meaning of Sadness on his songs. The objectives of the research is to identify the lyrics of Leave Your Lover, Burning, Nothing Left For You and Pray by Sam Smith by using the theory of poetry studies with the inner structure and the physical structure like tone, feeling, intention, imagery and the figurative of language, to identify what kinds of messages that want to be convey through the theory of poetry studies on Sam Smith's songs Leave Your Lover, Burning, Nothing Left For You and Pray. And then the writer also uses the Concept of Emotion: Sadness to identify the meaning of Sadness that contained on Sam Smith's songs Leave Your Lover, Burning, Nothing Left For You and Pray.

The writer concluded that these four songs have a meaning of sadness that leads to disappointment, despair, and regret, can be seen from every lyrics of these songs there is always an implied meaning about a man who feel sadness because of disappointment in the past and cannot have the person he loves, and despair in the face of the problem. Can be seen from the four lyrics of Leave Your Lover, Burning, Nothing Left For You, and Pray. The songwriter almost has the same way to expressing the sadness he felt including feelings of disappointment, despair, and regret

Based on the article that the writer reads, Sam Smith admitted that the song Burning inspired by his personal experience. He says that he let everything pass through the song. The song is also about popularity, perceived responsibility and pressure, and how he rebelled last year. The result of this term paper is sadness-theme songs that create by Sam Smith and mostly leads to disappointed, despair, and regret because from the above explanation the writer can summarize that Sam Smith expressing his feelings or personal experiences through the songs he sang. He also wants to voice the feelings of his people (LGBT) through the songs he created. Most of the causes of sadness in Sam Smith's song are about being left behind by a lover or disappointment because he can not have the person he loves and felt despair. Unconsciously Sam Smith is determined to succeed in music because he feels already expert on it and in this era can be known that the type of music with the theme of sadness. Such as songs from Adele, Second Hand Serenade, Taylor Swift, Calum Scott, and so on.

However, the result of this term paper is available to be continued. The writer suggests that everyone who interest to analyze poetry studies and the concept of emotion: sadness, and the research between them as a research material and Sam Smith's songs can also be analyzed using the theory of self-disclosure.

