

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION

After analyzing The Female Persuasion, through intrinsic approach which consists of characterization by showing and telling methods, plot and setting, elaborated with analysis through extrinsic approach by using liberal feminism theory. It can be concluded that the Faith Frank The Female persuasion reflects liberal feminism side. This is because every intrinsic elements that is also analyzed through social psychological theory of liberal feminism side fulfills the definition of liberal feminism side.

Faith Frank and Greer Kadetsky, as the most frequently appearing characters, display liberal feminism side in their actions and characteristics. Faith's liberal feminism side can be seen in her feminism acts, continuous spreading the message of feminism and helps Greer at that time. It is also applied in Greer, she is intelligent and realized what Darren does towards her is wrong and she needs to do something, even though the result not exactly what she wants but Greer keep moving on and helps other women too. By this, Faith also shows her liberal feminism side.

Through this research, we know that there are a lot of issues that happen towards women, most of them are sexual harassment and violence toward women, on verbal too. We need feminism for that, helping women who don't know where to go or seek for help. Feminism will be there to figure it their issues.

According to this research, it is potential for the next research. There are only a few journals and researches that discuss and analyze literature works by using liberal feminism theory. This research can introduce about liberal feminism theory and its application in literary works. This novel, the female Persuasion, is also still new by the time this research is conducted. It is still wide open to new possible findings that can be analyzed in this novel. The result of this research can become a reference in analyzing liberal feminism in literature work as well as next research about novel The Female persuasion.
