CHAPTER 1 INTRODUCTION

1.1 Background of the Research

Language is a tool of human being to socialize and communicate to one another. Without language, we as human can not interact and get information from others. In doing an activity, we usually do it while listening to a song, including while studying. Of course, in learning we need pleasure, so we can concentrate, not feel bored and make us more relaxed in studying. As you know, the English song nowadays is heard every second and everywhere, like in the street, mall, etc. Undoubtedly, a song does play an important role in stimulating the brain to be more productive in absorbing and digesting things. According to Metro.co.uk (March 21, 2019), many experts suggest that learning while listening to music will bring more effective results than without music. One of them is the psychology Dr. Emma Gray said that by listening to the music while studying can improve our learning activity, according to her research with Spotify.

In learning and understanding language, people not only understand the form of language, but also the meaning in it. There are many ways people do in delivering their idea to other, so that people can understand and catch the meaning of the idea. One of the ways that can be used is by a song. Lot of people can figure out their ideas and feeling into a song.

A song is a composition of voice performed by a singer or by musical instrument. There are many messages delivered in a song. In this era of globalization, people can speak with other through song. Through song someone could convey their voice to many people, so that people would know their feelings. Currently a lot of songs could express our feelings. It means that the song can be used as the way to delivering idea and feeling so that the people can understand what the composer means.

As we know, song is a part of literature. Sometimes, people find difficulties to understand what composer means in a song, because what conventionally says is not always the same as what they are intended to express. A composer usually put the meaning implicitly. In the attempt to understand the meaning of what composer means in a song, a further knowledge is needed.

In understanding a song, someone has a different point of view. It is because worldly knowledge differs from one person to another. The response give in listening to songs, especially one song can be different, because one analysis is different from the others. Analysis is adjust to show the listener sees from what context in understanding it. To understand the meaning and messages of a song we have to know about study of language first. The study of language is linguistic and one of linguistic aspects is idiomatic expression. One thing that we should learn to upgrading our skill of speaking in English is idiom. Idiom is an expression to describe certain condition that is not intended to be understood literally. Idiom is important to be learned and used because it can communicate something simple and interesting, in fact it can make us sounds like a native speaker. Idioms are used as metaphors or to symbolize something else. It helps in making the language beautiful, they also make things better or worse through making the expression good or bad.

One of the artist who uses a lot of idioms in their song is Billie Eilish. Billie Eilish is a pop indie American singer and songwriter. She is best known for her successful debut single, 'Ocean Eyes.' She was born and raised in Los Angeles, California. Belonging to a family of musicians, she was destined to make a career in performing arts. She joined a choir at the age of 8, and by the time she turned 11, she had begun writing and singing her own songs. Her elder brother, Finneas O'Connell, was the biggest influence in her life while she was grew up. He had his own band and had written a song titled 'Ocean Eyes.' Billie performed the song and released it online. It became a massive success. This turned out to be her first massive breakthrough. In 2017, her brother helped her record the single 'Bellyache.' With the success of the song, Billie released her debut EP, 'Don't Smile at Me,' in August 2017. The EP appeared on several American and international music charts. In October 2017, 'Apple' named her their newest 'Up Next' artist.
