

CHAPTER V

CLOSING

5.1 Conclusion

Field Work Practice is one of the compulsory courses in the Department of English Diploma III, Faculty of Letters, Darma Persada University. In carrying out practical fieldwork activities, students can work in agencies that have been adapted to their respective characters. The purpose of carrying out fieldwork activities is as one of the main requirements to be able to get an intermediate degree at the Department of English Diploma III. In addition it is to be able to know the real world of work activities to students, and also to train students' soft skills and hard skills which are expected to prepare students to enter the workforce.

From the author's practical work activities for approximately 40 working days, the author can conclude that:

1. East Jakarta Department of Tourism and Culture plays an important role in maintaining and preserving East Jakarta's tourism and culture.
2. The Tourism Industry Section develops the tourism industry in the East Jakarta sector by organizing training and coaching for entrepreneurs in the tourism industry.

3. East Jakarta Culture and Tourism Department's Attraction and Promotion Section holds an annual compulsory event namely East Jakarta's Abang Nene Election.

4. The Cultural Development Section houses Jakarta's cultural centers and provides guidance for the advancement of Jakarta's original culture.

5. The Administration Section receives incoming letters from other agencies as well as receives letters from all sections in the East Jakarta Tourism and Culture Office giving it to the East Jakarta Tourism and Culture Office Chief for signing.

This internship is a big opportunity for me and all students to gain experience and learn new things, especially in the world of work. Additionally, the internship is a valuable time for students to apply the knowledge gained in university, also gain our skill to work individually or in a team which will benefit for us in the future.

As stated above, every job and duties from the internship come everyday in different situation and condition. Although there are a lots of obstacles and challenges come which I have not experienced before, but this situation makes me increase our abilities and skills in the world of working.

Department of Tourism and Culture is the right place for me and other students to do the internship. It opens opportunity for students in university or senior high school to perform the internship every three month in a year. There are four division in Department of Tourism of East Jakarta which able for students to possibly gain their soft skills and hard skills also their knowledge.

I can make a conclusion from the internship activities that Department of Tourism and Culture of East Jakarta is very important to develop and supervise all of tourism site in East Jakarta. Department of Tourism and Culture of East Jakarta also conserve the original culture of Jakarta by performing in every event or festival to introduce the public.
