CHAPTER 5

CONCLUSION

Referring to the problem statement and the analysis in previous chapters in Samantha Downing's novel My Lovely Wife using intrinsic approach and extrinsic approach through psychology analysis, finally the writer can take the conclusions.

After analyzing the novel, the writer conclude that intrinsic approach can be used to analyze My Lovely Wife novel. The writer applies showing and telling method to know the characterization of some in the novel. The characters that the writer analyzed are Tobias as the main character, Millicent and Rory that relate to the story. They support each other to show their characterization.

Tobias as main character is responsible, liar and feel guilty. The situation, condition, place, time and atmosphere in Hidden Oaks is support the five function of the setting. The plot also supports the characterization and the setting in this story. The plot also creates the chronological in this story because plot used to describe the events that make up a story, or the main part of a story.

The writer finds that Personality Structure of Tobias composed of id, ego and superego. In id of Tobias there are some id that are fulfilled and some id that are not fulfilled. Based on function, id is driven by pleasure principle which is strives immediate gratification of all desires, needs and wants. There is some id of Tobias that are fulfilled because the insistence of Tobias's needs and desires.

In personality structure of Tobias, superego sometimes in controlling his personality and how he acts. Tobias is also listening his superego because he chooses to protect his children even though id of Tobias urges him to fulfill his desires and needs. Tobias decision is always influenced by his id. It is because the ego develops to mediate between the unrealistic id and the external real world. It is the decision making component of personality and the ego works by reason. But it doesn't make the ego often abandon his superego's warning.

The writer finds Tobias used sublimation as his self-defense mechanism used to protect him from anxiety arising from unacceptable thoughts or his feelings. Tobias uses sublimation because some of his id are not fulfilled. Through sublimation, Tobias is able to transform his unwanted impulses into something that is less harmful and often even helpful. He does some activity to reduce his anxiety like he went to country club, hanging out in the clubhouse and chatting with some of his clients.

The writer finds the theme of this novel reinforce using the result of analysis of the intrinsic approaches and the extrinsic approach. In intrinsic approach that consist of method of characterization showing and telling method, plot and setting. Each element has elaboration to support the theme of the novel, method of characterization shows the characterization of Tobias through telling and showing method.

Plot describes the structure of a story and shows arrangement of events and actions of Tobias. And setting showed the time and place of the action of the story that live of Tobias and the other characters. In extrinsic through psychology of literature also support the theme of the novel. The writer used Personality Structure that consists of id, ego and superego and also Sublimation to analysis the main character of novel.

The writer hopes that this research is helping the other readers and the next researchers that are interesting to analyze deeper about the Personality Structure and Sublimation into the characterization of the character in a novel. The writer also hopes that this research will be useful in order to another researcher to analyze this theory.

According to this research, it is potential for the next research. This research can introduce about personality structure theory and sublimation theory its application in literary works.
