

CHAPTER 4

CONCLUSION

This chapter covers the conclusion based on the result of the analysis of speech act of utterance of the main characters in the dialogue of Jumanji: The Next Level Movie. In appropriate with the data which have been analyzed and interpreted in the previous chapter, the writer concludes some results below:

1. The utterances of the main characters of Jumanji found which contain illocutionary illocutionary act are below:

A. Representative

Representative means representing the thing by utterances that appropriate with what the speaker believes. The writer found at least 21 utterances of representative act like some example: Oh, get old sucks. Don't let everybody tell you different. (Act of Complaining)

B. Directives

Directive means speaker attempt to get the addressee to do something. The writer found at least 25 utterances of directives act like some example: Is that a desert fruit? Yes, it is Jumanji Berries with weighing 100 pounds. (Act of Asking)

C. Commissives

Commissives, which are concern with a speaker's commitment to the future action. The writer found at least 6 utterances of commissive act like presented: I will never go back. (Act of Vowing)

D. Expressive

Expressive, which deals with expression of psychological state. The writer found at least 3 utterances like example: I'm sorry Milo (Act of Apologizing), Being your partner is wonder best thing I ever got to be, He said thank you. (Act of Thanking)

E. Declarative

Declarative, which are related with acts having immediately change. The writer found at least 1 utterance of declarative act like presented: What did you just say? You and me will find solution right here right now. (Act of Deciding)

2. Perlocutionary act of utterances of the main characters in Jumanji: The Next Level Movie script which interpreted by researcher like example below:

The utterance of Ming Fleetfoot (Is that a desert fruit?), the perlocutionary act is the effect on the hearer. Then, Ruby Roundhouse as the hearer indirectly explained that she had succeeded in getting Jumanji berries as the effect of that utterance.

3. The illocutionary act in Jumanji The Next Level Movie found more than one illocutionary act.

4. Not of all illocutionary act have perlocutionary effect.