

CHAPTER 5

CONCLUSION

The momentum of rebuilding the nation arises among the uncertainty situations happening to all American people caused by so many problems. There is the bearer of hopes of many, uniting nation from disunity, democratizing the decline of democracy, restoring humanity and serenity, restoring justice from injustice, and stopping any lies for trust. He appears in the Capitol Hill on January 20, 2021, Joseph Robinette Biden Jr., the one who is awakening the mentality of American people. Coming with bringing so much hopes of many, President Joe Biden realizes that the country, The United States of America, facing millions of problems that every American feels. The momentum for him to lead the nation, to resolve the domestic problems first rather than dealing with international issues. He knows what the priorities are, uniting the people of The United States of America and securing the national stability in humanity and political problems. Hence, The United States of America under his presidency is led with the more democratic policies concerning about uniting the nation.

The momentum does not stop there, rebuilding the nation under God, indivisible, and with a liberty. Hereinafter, January 20, 2021 is the time for American people to have a president who is close to people. Reaching the top position as the number one man in the United States of America, there is not any occasion for him to place his ego over all American people's interest. He is the one who can feel the hopes, happiness, and sadness that every American has. He knows and understands on how to communicate with people and society. Preferring emotional attachment, being open minded president, composed and persuasive commander, embracing people without any exception, being responsible for every word he comes out, being a humanist president, being a good listener president, and prioritizing action rather than promises, that is exactly who President Joe Biden is.

Taking his oath for becoming the 46th President of the United States of America witnessed by all American people, President Joe Biden is not alone. His inauguration day is attended by some dignitaries as well including the former President Barack Obama. Coming from the same party, both President Joe and the former President Obama are considered to have the similarity in the style of language, especially their style of speech. However, that is not totally true. From this term paper analyses, they still have differences. President Joe Biden differentiates his style from Obama's through the use of figure of speech which is clearer in emphasizing messages through repetition and alliteration, the approach in communication, and the typical style of his speech. President Joe Biden is more emotional in approaching people. The characteristics of his utterances are clear, brief, and more composed. Hence, his typical speech is automatically formed as persuasive speech in which each utterance is shorter than the former President Obama's typical speech. The former President Barack Obama has a speech style which is very complex since it contains persuasive, informative, and critical thinking ideas. Therefore, each utterance is more complex structurally. Furthermore, the former President Barack Obama is very rich in diction for dominantly expressed in hyperbole figure of speech.

From what the analyses provided in this term paper, I hope and expect that this term paper can give a good overview and can assist people generally, and linguistic students specifically to learn deeply the aspect of language in the field of linguistics. Ultimately, the linguists can participate in preventing significant commotions in our society. Hence, the knowledge that we have as a linguist can empower and educate people. To end this Chapter 5, for the future researchers interested in working on critical discourse analyses, I provide you advice to obtain supporting data retrieved from any sources to strengthen and to firm your analyses since it is very essential as the fundamental to understand the context in each datum you find out.