

CHAPTER V CONCLUSIONS

In this chapter describe the conclusion of the analysis according to the analysis of the conflict external and the resolution on Jurassic World Fallen Kingdom Movie based on the plot. Moreover, this chapter describe the suggest for the next study who will do the similar study, based on the object or the analysis.

In composing of the story, the research used a content analysis approach in the research, which used plots as the basis for determining conflicts and their resolution. The conflict studied is an external conflict. In external conflict, researchers found two types of conflict, namely man versus man and man versus nature. The man versus man conflict happened on Owen Graddy, Claire Dearing, and Maisie Lockwood with Eli Mills who known as the right-hands of Benjamin Lockwoods, and Ken Wheatley who known as the right-hands Eli Mills. Meanwhile the man versus nature happened on Owen Graddy and Claire Dearing with the eruption of Mt. Sibou and the dinosaurs at Isla Nublar.

Also, there are four conflict resolution that found. There are three conflict resolution found in man versus man conflict namely, accommodating, avoiding, and compromising. In the man versus nature there are two conflicts resolution found, namely collaborating and avoiding. The most common conflict resolution are accommodating and collaborating.

After doing an analysis on the movie script Jurassic World Fallen Kingdom, the writer suggests for the next writers, especially who those are interested in analyzing conflict based on the plot of the story (novel, drama, or movie script). The author suggests to analyze the other elements of intrinsic element of fiction. Additionally, the next researchers can continue this research focusing on the internal conflict in the story, character and characterization, and etc. For who will make study with movie script as an object of study, the author suggest to choose a movie through the ecranization process, it means the movie based on the novel. Because the analysis will be more complete and adequate. The writer hopes that this research is very helpful for the next researcher who wants to analyze external conflict and resolution based on plot in movie script.
