

CHAPTER V

CLOSING

5.1 Conclusion

An internship is one of the subjects in English Diploma III Program that must be taken by all of Diploma III student as a requirement to graduate and obtain the Associate's Degree applied by Faculty of Literature of Darma Persada University. The internship has the purpose as a media for students to apply their knowledge and skills to obtained during studying in university and to adapt with the environment with the aim of preparing students to enter the actual scope of work. Furthermore, internship is an opportunity for students to expand their skills in dealing with the real workplace in order to get the best graduates who will have the ability to compete in the global market.

After doing an internship at Skill Development Institute at Darma Persada University, I've got a lot of experiences that so important to me during an internship, I'm more able to adapt and interact with the workplace environment and understand the different characteristics of people in the workplace. Gaining new skills, experience, and knowledge about the workplace and how to work in workplace. Understand the work ethic of Skill Development Institute at Darma Persada University. Learn that Skill Development Institute at Darma Persada University is a very important institute for language and guidance.

5.2 Suggestion

The Suggestions for Skill Development Institute at Darma Persada University;

1. The Skill Development Institute need to have more relation with English related Countries, and make the English courses more flexible and efficient
2. Adding more Information in the Web pages of Skills Development Institute.
3. The Skill Development Institute should've become less lax. And spread the work with staffs evenly

