

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION

A. Conclusion

At some point, human is God's creation that cannot stand alone. Human has connection to other human, which it's sometime fall into problem. In a family, the husband and the wife have so many conflicts. Some of them stay to maintain the unity of their family, but there are also people who need to erase the conflict through separation. Infidelity is one of the reasons of the conflict. According to the writer's thought, infidelity happens because of there are some problems with trust, too much doubt, and anxiety. Those feelings lead them to cheat and break their vow.

Fidelity and trust fades away easily if there any lacks of satisfaction in sexual life of the couple. The writer thinks that infidelity is the eruption of a disaster in marriage life. In this movie, for example, Mitch is a man that never satisfied of anything in his life. He treats Slim as a trophy. There are so many things that we can get from this movie. We should know deeply about our future spouse. We have to introduce our self with honesty to gain trust. Hold the sacred vow as the basic of happy marriage life, and be responsible with the spouse, to make a pure and holy domestic life. All has to be done to avoid infidelity. Of course there will still be problems.

For example is the racist. Like what happened in this movie, where Mitch is an American guy, and Slim is the Latin woman. The point of view that is showed here is Mitch act like a tough guy and belittles Slim. Moreover, the writer has to agree with an option that any wife has to have their own income. They would never know when they will need secret funds to help themselves later. In Slim's case, she prepares herself to be away from her husband and keep on living with Gracie without cash. This can be the message of the movie that all women have to prepare for anything because life is a mystery. And as how its still rolling on, we has to enjoy it too.

Except the anxiety concept, there is another concept that has been found by the writer to analyze the same movie. Feminism concept will suit it fine because this entire movie is trying to tell is about a courageous woman that has to survive alone with her daughter. She demands the right of herself as a woman to her husband and despises the idea of how a woman has to stay being a woman but not a friend of life after the marriage.
