

CHAPTER 5

CONCLUSION

In “Happier Than Ever” album, Billie Eilish mostly talk about her life. Her life as a famous artist and singer who had started her career since she was a teenager. Her life which can be exposed easily by people around the world through the social media (indirectly) and directly by the paparazzi. Her life as a famous one has never been easy because after she became the famous one, her life has no privacy. Sometimes, she just missed her old life before she is now. sometimes she just wanted to go back to the past just for a while, but she could not. living in the music industry is hard for her because she often gets the incident treatment. This album also talks about her past relationship with her ex-boyfriend. She was in the toxic relationship where she cannot get over it but she was not enjoyed her own relationship. She always feels lonely and unwanted by her ex-boyfriend because her ex-boyfriend always left her alone. She was often got the physical abuse from her ex-boyfriend, but finally after all of that, she can finally get over her toxic relationship.

This “Happier Than Ever” album by Billie Eilish starts with the song “Getting Older” in “Getting Older” song the types of figurative language used are 1 idiom and 1 irony. This song is talking about getting older as a famous one is never been easy. The second song in the album is “I Didn’t Change My Number”, in this song I analyzed that the types of figurative language that used in this song are 2 metaphors and 1 irony. This song is about Billie’s past toxic relationship with her ex-boyfriend. The third song of this album is “Billie Bossa Nova”, in this song, I analyzed that the types of figurative language that used in this song are 1 metaphor and 1 hyperbole. This song is about the euphoria of falling in love also her past relationship with her ex whose relationship is secret because it is hard to being in a relationship with someone with paparazzi around. The fourth song in this album is “My Future” in this song, I analyzed that the types of figurative language in this song are 1 idiom and 1 metaphor. This song is about Billie Eilish’s hopes for the future her, to becomes better and fall in love with herself more.

The next song in this “Happier Than Ever” album is “Oxytocin”, in this song, I analyzed that the figurative language used in this song are 1 idiom and 1 personification. This song is mostly talking about Billie’s past toxic relationship. Her relationship was toxic, but she needs him. The next song is “GOLDWING”, in this song contains 1 metaphor and 1 hyperbole. This song is mostly talking about Billie who lost herself and she tried to find the way out, out from her comfort zone. This song is also about a hope. The next song is “Lost Cause”, in this song, I analyzed that the figurative language used in this song is 1 idiom. In this song is most talking about her ex-boyfriend regrets of being so cruel to Billie on their past relationship. The next song is “Halley’s Comet”, in this song, I analyzed that the figurative language used in this song is 1 irony. This song mostly talking about the euphoria of falling in love.

The next song of this album is “Not My Responsibility”, in this song, I analyzed that the figurative language used in this song is 2 ironies. The next song is “OverHeated”. In this song I analyzed that the figurative language used in this song are 1 simile and 1 personification. The next song is “Everybody Dies”, in this song I analyzed that the figurative language used in this song is 1 idiom. This song is mostly talking about the life either being a famous or being ordinary we are all died one day. The next song is “Your Power”. In this song, I analyzed that the figurative language used in this song are 1 simile and 2 personification.

The next song of this album is “NDA”, in this NDA song, I analyzed that the types of figurative language used in this song is 2 idioms. The next song is “ThereFore I am”. In this song, I analyzed that the types of figurative language found in this song is 1 idiom. The next song in this album is “Happier Than Ever”. In this song, I analyzed that the types of figurative language that can found in this song are 1 idiom, 1 irony, and 1 personification. This song mostly talking about Billie’s new life where finally she can get over from her past toxic relationship and can love herself even better. And the last song in this album is “Male Fantasy”. In this song, I do not find any figurative language used in the song lyrics.

After the explanation above, my advice for the readers is I hope that my research can help the readers to understand the true meaning of the lyrics written by the song writer, and to those who want to deep analyze about figurative language study in the song lyrics, and I hope that my research can help the readers to know the true meaning that the song writer wants to convey. My advice for the next researcher who wants to have a research with the same topic I hope that they can find another types of figurative language which contain in this album because in this research, I just analyzed and found 6 types of figurative language and most of them are using the idiom. In addition, the next researchers may use this research object with different theories of figurative language.

