POSTER OF THE RESEARCH

THE ANALYSIS OF HEGEMONY IN TERRA NULLIUS NOVEL BY CLAIRE G. COLEMAN

2020130008 TEFTI KURNIAWATI

BACKGROUND OF THE PROBLEM

Literary works are frequently seen in society as having the ability to impact, influence, and even transform society. This belief makes it not unusual when we hear stories of authors being threatened or prohibited by groups after they publish their works of literature. The presence of literary works such as these enables it to be comprehended through the lens of Gramsci's hegemony theory. Hegemony develops because of a balance between the strength of political society as the dominant party, the power of forceful tactics, and the power of consent from civil society. As a result, it might be claimed that deep, violent hegemony appears hazy because it is hidden by a force that quietly manipulates symbolic representation.

FORMULATION OF THE PROBLEM

1. How are the theories of hegemony related to the main character and characterization, plot, and setting in Terra Nullius novel?
2. How are the influence and impact of the hegemony and state in Terra Nullius novel?

The second research by Angga Wahyu Firmansyah and Normulita Indah Auliya (2022) with the title "Hegemoni Penindasan dan Moral dalam Novel Bidadari Tak Suci Karya Fisilmi Hamida (Kajian Sosiologi Sastra)".

The third research by Fais Rokmawar Dani and Suseno (2023) with the title "Hegemoni Gramsci dalam Novel Kubah Karya Ahmad Tohari".

RESEARCH FINDINGS AND ANALYSIS

DATA ANALYSIS

- 8 characters & characterizations.
- 5 types of plot.
- 3 types of setting.
- 4 impacts of hegemony.

CONCLUSION

There are eight distinct characterizations from the analysis that were done through the elaboration between intrinsic and extrinsic; three of these characterizations are antagonistic, which means that they have a negative characterization since they are the primary focus of the hegemony that is dominating. Three of them represent the objective of the hegemony itself, the protagonist with a compelling description. The one is initially both the subject and the target of hegemony, which makes one characterization especially unique. The last characterization is the focus of intellectual and moral hegemony.

CONCLUSION

- ✓ Because the plot tells the story of the lives of the native inhabitants of a still-natural continent, the setting and plot of Terra Nullius are highly interesting and intimately connected. They are Aboriginal people who have lived on the Australian continent for hundreds of years. They are unique in their cultures, languages, customs, and beliefs. When the Europeans finally arrived on this rocky, crumbling continent and took it from the Aboriginals, everything was destroyed.
- ✓ The domination leadership includes a revolution carried out by Europeans when they landed on the Australian continent to make a change in the country under European rules which was conceptualized as an expansion of the country or an integral state.
