

CHAPTER 5

CONCLUSION

The results after I analyzing a movie script entitled “Rocks (2020)” through intrinsic approach which is consists of characterization, plot, and setting. Characterization, plot, and setting of the story elaborated with analysis through extrinsic approach using the theory of Struggle. It can be concluded that the Rocks movie script can be analyzed through Literary Psychological Approach. The result of the instinsic approach that I describe with the extrinsic approach to prove that the theme of this research is analysis of struggle that has happened of Rocks in character in Rocks movie script.

Characterization through the dialogue of the characters of showing is the method that be used to analyze the characterization of the character in Rocks movie script by Thereisa Ikoko and Claire Wilson. It can be proven in Rocks character that she has a courages, resilience, independent, protective, jealous behaviour. those characterization will prove Struggle in the character of Rocks from this movie script.

The moral of this research is that struggling to get a better life because when we think we are right and we don't want to hear someone's suggestion, it can be the biggest problem in our life, because we are not always right when we decide the decision, sometimes we are just choose the simple decision that we think is right and simple, but sometimes it can be a boomerang for us. so that this is why I would say do not forget to talk to people when you are feel depressed or in stuck situation its like you can not think properly, despite they cannot solve our problem but we can make ourself relaxed, and can think properly. The film is made to prove the struggles of teenage life that has happened or will happen in the future that teenagers often experience in their lives.

This research about the movie script “Rocks” can introduce to people about struggle in life. This would be potential for the next researcher to analyze “Rocks” through other approaches and concepts. Therefore, I conclude that the theme of this movie is struggle seen in the characters of “Rocks” movie script. It can be seen from the characters, plot, and setting through the intrinsic and extrinsic approach of the movie script entitled “Rocks.”
