

CHAPTER 5

CONCLUSION

Based on the goals of the study, the researcher summarises down all of the analyses that were presented in the earlier chapters in this chapter. The purpose of the study is to identify the various figurative language kinds and meanings found in the album Slipknot (We Are Not Your Kind). I uses Abrams (1981) theory to find out types of figurative language in Slipknot (We Are Not Your Kind) album. After taking the data and classifying the data based on categories of figurative language, I concludes that Slipknot (We Are Not Your Kind) album uses metaphor, simile, personification, hyperbole, allusion, and idiom. Slipknot (We Are Not Your Kind) Album contains disparities exist not just in contemporary society but also in global events and the singer's hectic life as one single dimension 2019. Based on the analysis on chapter 3, it can be concluded that there are 5 types of figurative language found Album. Slipknot (We Are Not Your Kind) album. There are fifty (50) metaphors, simile, ten (9) personifications, four (2) hyperboles and one (1) allusion. I finds out that Slipknot (We Are Not Your Kind) album is mostly using followed by metaphor, Personifications and Hyperboles.

In the We Are Not Your Kind album, songwriter Shawn Crahan wants to convey disparities exist not just in contemporary society but also in global events and the singer's hectic life, because Taylor's life is chaotic in more ways than one. Taylor's exorbitant pricing is creatively motivated by his pain and the reality of a broken heart. Demonstrating his sadness and rage doesn't make him any less effective. Even when lucid, Taylor possesses the ability to enter a situation that could lead to his own destruction. Commentators who thought "We Are Not Kind" was one of Slipknot's best albums ever released gave the album a lot of positive reviews as well. In addition "It can actually be frightening, hazardous, and distressing for our fans and kids. We're a family because of our shared love of this music, regardless of who you are, where you're from, how you appear, what color skin you are, who you love, or what you believe. In addition, Corey also revealed that the selection of the quotation as the album's title appeared lately.

The sentence itself is a lyrical excavation of the song "All Out Life." Percussionist Shawn 'Clown' Crahan added: "When Corey created the lyrics and we heard the sentences on the 'All Out Life' song, I immediately thought, 'There's nothing better than this.

With the figurative language in the songs of We Are Not Your Kind album, the different exist not just in contemporary society but also in global events and the singer's hectic life to the listeners through the songs written by the songwriter, Shawn Crahan. Looking at the various figurative language contained in the songs, we can know that figurative language can have a role as a conveying the meaning of each lyric in any song.

